AWAKENED WORLD INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

OCTOBER 27 - 30, 2014
SANTA BARBARA, CA

The first ever Awakened World Film Festival is a "spirit-spun" celebration of the emerging opportunities of our times.

The unique feature of this Festival is its focus on bringing inspiration, reflection, and learning into harmony with enlightened action. Over four nights and three days, enjoy evening film and musical galas in one of Santa Barbara's landmark theaters, and design your own daytime film/workshop experience by choosing from among three sensational downtown viewing venues.

This is a film festival woven into a working conference in which YOU play a key role.

Each daytime session will combine a sequence of ...

- 1) Inner centering from a variety of traditions
- 2) Film screening
- 3) Presentation by film's principal producers, directors, actors, and advocates
- 4) An interactive mini-workshop in which the whole audience works together on possible ways in which the messages of the film can be actively expressed and animated in our everyday lives.
