Nonviolence as a Way of Life Conference

University of Oregon

Eugene, Oregon

The 2008 Nonviolence as a Way of Life Conference featuring Dr. Marshall Rosenberg will bring together nearly 2,000 people of all ages and backgrounds for four days of workshops, panels, dialogues, play-shops and other activities focusing on inspirational and practical applications of nonviolence in 14 areas of human life.

The common thread that weaves together each of the activities at the conference is the vision that the philosophy and practice of nonviolence can serve as a universal value for organizing all facets of human life. Our aim is to provide conference attendees with a sense of hope, purpose, and meaning, rooted in the practical and useful applications of nonviolence.

Unity of Tustin Tustin, CA

We have initiated a Global Peace Project at Unity of Tustin:

- * We will observe the "11 Days of Global Unity" beginning Sep 11.
- * We will begin by announcing the overall focus programs for peace, and Unity of Tustin's on-going peace activities on Sunday August 24
- * There will be a Peace Site in our Meditation Garden, with a Peace Pole inscribed with a peace prayer in English, plus the three languages of the Abraham Path.
- * We will observe the 11 Days starting Sep 11, Unity's World Day of Prayer with prayer and other activities, including sign-ups for a prayer vigil.
 - * Sunday announcements will be made before and during the 11 Days to engage our community.
- * We will teach a seven-week course based upon Deepak Chopra's book, "Peace is the way."
- * We will observe the United Nations Day of Peace on Sunday Sep 21 with some activity.
- * We plan to hold a 1/2 day Silent Retreat for Peace within the 11 Days.
- * We will perpetuate the program throughout the year, including courses in Non-Violent Communications.

Lift Detroit in Prayer
Location: Place: Hart Plaza
Detroit, MI

We are planning a joyous celebration for the culmination of our 21 day prayer vigil, during which we have prayed for God's blessing upon Greater Detroit. Many religious and spiritual communities are praying in their own way during this time when Detroit needs it most.

Response has been fabulous! We are expecting at least 2,000 people from all faiths and backgrounds to attend the September 14 ceremony. Award-winning religion journalist David Crumm (www.liftdetroitinprayer.info) will speak, followed by a time of prayer. After the brief ceremony, people will be able to write their own prayers in specially blessed journals. Spiritual communities can sign up to take a journal back to their community, dispersing the prayerful energy all over the metro area! They can continue to add prayers to the journal for those who were not able to make the event.

Interfaith Gathering
Location: Cao Dai Universal Temple,
Pomona, CA

In this interactive gathering we will work with the theme of "love your enemy". Participants are invited to bring short prayers, meditations, messages or just their thoughts on the subject to share. After our interactive candlelighting we will reconsider the teachings of the great Buddha Gautama, Jesus Christ, Mohammed, etc....

Has this teaching been applied by humanity? or it has been forgotten?
What does humanity have to do to bring peace to the world?"
What tools do we know of that will assist people in doing this Peace-Making work?

How can we let people know that such tools exist and teach them how to use them?

Sharing will be followed by sacred Sufi dancing and then by informal sharing and food.

(CaoDai is a religion that originated in Vietnam in the early 20th century. The noble effort of CaoDai is to unite all of humanity through a common vision of the Supreme Being, whatever our minor differences, in order to promote peace and understanding throughout the world. CaoDai does not seek to create a gray world, where all religions are exactly the same, only to create a more tolerant world, where all can see each other as sisters and brothers from a common divine source reaching out to a common divine destiny realizing peace within and without.)

Peace and Blessing Buddhist Ceremony

Location: Middle Land Chan Monastery
POMONA, CA 91767

Middle Land Chan Monastery Offers Peace and Blessing Ceremony

Peace is the foundation for a stable society; it is the basis of happiness and prosperity for all mankind. Middle Land Chan Monastery, a branch of Chung Tai Chan Monastery in Taiwan, will join other organizations in participation of the 2008 Pomona Valley 11 Days of Global Unity Activities. This series of interfaith activities not only commemorates the 9/11 disaster, but it is a way for all faiths to communicate and understand each other, so that we may bring peace and harmony to the rest of the world.

Middle Land Chan Monastery will hold a peace and blessing ceremony on September 16th, from 7:30 to 9:00 PM. Our founding abbot, Venerable Master Wei-Chueh, emphasizes that "The land will be purified when everybody's mind is purified; sentient beings will be tranquil when everybody's mind is tranquil; the world will be peaceful when everyone's mind is peaceful." Through the chanting of Buddhist scriptures, meditation, and offerings during the ceremony, we open our hearts to the great compassion and loving kindness of Buddhas and Bodhisattvas. If one becomes aware of his/her intentions, discriminates between right and wrong, and treats everyone and everything with wisdom, compassion, and equality, then peace is spread from one individual to the family, through the society, up to the country and to the entire world.

Location: Unity Church of Pomona
Pomona 91767

"Doing Time, Doing Vipassana"

What difference does inner peace make in a person's life? How can we find it? Is it possible for a meditation practice to shift the minds and hearts of even hard core prisoners? What does that mean for us? "Doing Time, Doing Vipassana" by Israeli filmmakers, explores these questions in the setting of a hard core prison in India.

(This film is part of the "11 Days of Global Unity" Peace Film festival, co-sponsored by the Department of Children and Family Services. They will share how participants can assist children and families in our area.)

A unique Earth Celebration

Location: Wherever YOU are on the Earth - alone, with family, neighbors, institution.

PURPOSE Build person- and family-sized solidarity to care for life in our homes and neighborhoods, based on the Unity we all share within and our common interest and skills to respect the precious jewel of life: the Earth and all its living beings.

A grand vision of over 10 years work is now starting to be implemented. Wanna help?

UNIQUE Do It Yourself Celebrations of the Earth, Life and People happen EVERY MIDSEASON for FIVE DAYS: 19th-23rd Sept, Dec, Mar, June until 2020. The theme is simply 'Caring for Life' as a universal set of skills and an attitude beneficial to all peoples. These celebration dates are also unstoppable as the Earth circles the Sun.

This can spread worldwide and will do so according to how many people want it to and take responsibility in their home or community. Inexhaustible possibilities of joyful and diverse expressions of partying, by celebrating everything precious about life - before it's too late (species dying out at approx. 150/day). See the first mini web site at our DANCE SECTION of ECelebs:

www.DanceAroundtheSun.org

If you are a collaborator with great passion about spreading respect for the Earth and our true deepest identity (our common human Awareness), please contact the founder to help launch this major educational movement.

Creating Relationships of Peace

Location: Unity PeaceMakers of Unity Church of Christianity
Houston, Texas

Join Unity PeaceMakers at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, September 26 to hear our wonderful friend, author and teacher of A Course in Miracles, Jerry Stefaniak present "Relationships and Peace".

One of the fundamental teachings of A Course in Miracles is how much our relationships affect our peace of mind. Once we begin to see that the problems of peace start in our own minds and from how we perceive the world, then we can heal the problem at the root. As we find peace with ourselves, we find peace with others. This is the basis for developing world peace.

Jerry will introduce us all to the basic precepts of A Course in Miracles and its teachings on relationships and peace. We begin with a potluck dinner at 6:30 in Wallet Hall, followed by the program at 7:15. Come and find how World Peace starts at the very center of your heart!!!
