We invite you to join us in activating the power of group prayer/meditation every day from September 11th through September 25th, promoting peace and encouraging an effective G-20 summit. Your participation will make a difference. The suggested text for the Prayer/Meditation is:

We now open our hearts to the unity and interconnectedness of all people. This unity transcends belief systems and political polarities. We affirm the inherent divinity within every individual. We Are All One ^ one planet, one world, one body of humanity, one Spirit. We support and encourage peaceful, creative collaboration at the G-20

Summit in Pittsburgh and in all interactions large and small everywhere. Our vision is that everyone is heard and no one is hurt.

With conscious intention in prayer and meditation, we connect with love and embrace all people in heart, mind and spirit, creating a wave of uplifting energy that radiates across the planet. We envision citizens and leaders from all countries opening to their innate wisdom and awakening new pathways for global peace, prosperity and sustainability. In deep gratitude, love, and peace, we honor the truth of our divinity. And so it is.
